TESTIMONIALS

KATIE PATTERSON
PARENT

"My family has chosen to partner with GCS to help meet our homeschooling goals. It not only offers additional accountability and guidance to the BJU Press curriculum, but combined with the "brick and click" option they offer, we have been able to participate in various social opportunities, athletics, and Grace's excellent drama and fine arts programs!"

NATHAN BROKKE
PARENT

"In our time with Grace Online we have been amazed by the quality of the lessons, its ease of use, the comprehensive nature of its offerings, and its ability to engage our daughter in learning. Beyond our delight over the product, we are incredibly thankful for the structure that drives Grace Online. We know that the full support of a regionally and nationally accredited faculty and staff stands behind the product, so our kids will get a top-notch education at a location and on a schedule that works for our family."

ABIGAIL PATTERSON
STUDENT

"I love online schooling with Grace because of the flexibility it provides me and my family. It also lets me move at a pace that is comfortable for me. It lets me have the benefits of homeschooling with all of the extracurricular activities I wouldn't be able to do otherwise."

JOE WAGONER
STUDENT

"I have enjoyed taking chemistry through Grace Online because it allows me to do the work at my own pace, but also have some guidelines as to when the work needs to be done. I also enjoy the way chapters are split up into different lessons. The teacher is also engaging with the material and does a good job of explaining."

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Can a student work at their own pace?

- A: Yes. However, the Grace Online experience is most rewarding when 4-6 hours a day are spent working on lessons and assignments, 5 days per week.

Q: Are there extra-curricular activities for students?

- A: Students taking at least two "Brick" classes are eligible to participate in sports, fine arts and theater. "Click Only" students are welcome to join in special classes, chapel, and lunch on campus.

Q: Will this program prepare my child for college?

- Yes! The online classes follow the same curriculum as our traditional classroom students. The curriculum is a college preparatory one that prepares students for entry into colleges and universities.
